Statement of Probable Cause:

On May 4, 2026, at approximately 2208 hours, James Alan Springer was engaged in a verbal argument with his wife, Alicia Springer, at their residence located at [redacted] in Sahuarita, located within Pima County. J. Springer and A. Springer were in a verbal altercation about J. Springer's mental health. A. Springer was worried about his health, as he was unemployed and she had been working two jobs to support their family. During the verbal altercation, J. Springer became irate, throwing his personal cellphone at the oven's glass door, shattering the glass door, while screaming. During the altercation, J. Springer had made threatening comments to A. Springer and their daughter, Emma Springer, along the lines of, "Before I kill myself, I'm going to take her out (E. Springer) because she is a bratty, ungrateful...

little bitch." He also stated to A. Springer, "I'm also going to take you out as well." While A. Springer were attempting to leave the residence through the garage door, J. Springer pushed his way through E. Springer, who was located within the threshold of the door. J. Springer then left the residence and was located at 795 W. Via Rancho Sahuarita Blvd; 7-Eleven. When officers attempted to make an investigative stop on J. Springer, he failed to stop, ultimately leading officers in a vehicle pursuit through multiple jurisdictions within Pima County. J. Springer's vehicle was ultimately immobilized near the intersection of Twin Peaks and I10.

Based on J. Springer willfully fleeing from pursuing law enforcement, he was charged for ARS 28-622.01 Unlawful Flight from Pursuing Law Enforcement. Due to J. Springer, carrying a deadly weapon while in the commission of carrying out a serious offense, he was charged with ARS 13-3102A1a Weapons Misconduct. Due to J. Springer recklessly breaking the glass of the oven and defacing it, he was charged with 13-3601A1/13-1602A1 Domestic Violence/Criminal Damage. Furthermore, J. Springer threatened A. Springer and E. Springer by telling them if they contacted police, he was going to take both of them out while was J. Springer had his pistol with him at the time. Finally, J. Springer was charged with 13-3601A1/13-1202A1 Domestic Violence/Assault due to him recklessly pushing E. Springer into a trash can in the garage causing her to fall to the ground as a result of his actions. J. Springer was charged with 13-2904A6 Disorderly Conduct for recklessly displaying the firearm on his hip while making multiple hand gestures, as if he was going to draw the firearm. J. Springer was also charged with 13-3601A1/13-2904A1 Disorderly Conduct for engaging in seriously disruptive behavior, disturbing the family.

Justification for Bond Recommendation:

I am requesting a high bond due to J. Springer's reckless actions and disregard for law enforcement during tonight's incident. J. Springer was making several suicidal and homicidal statements during the course of the incident as well as the pursuit. J. Springer has shown that he has a propensity for violence to include physical domestic violence. An emergency order of protection was granted based on the totality of the investigation which included J. Springer relinquishing his firearms upon release.
