Defendant(s).

CR20251060-001
CR20251454-001

AMENDED STATE'S PETITION TO REVOKE DEFENDANT'S PROBATION

Hon. D. Douglas Metcalf
DIVISION 16

Comes now the State of Arizona, by and through the Pima County Attorney, LAURA CONOVER, and her Deputy, RACHEL STILES, pursuant to Rule 27.6 of the Arizona Rules of Criminal Procedure, hereby Petitions this Court to Revoke the Defendant's Probation. The State supplements the Petition originally filed on July 10, 2026 to include specifics of the basis for the allegations of the violations of probation.

I. FACTS:

The Defendant was charged with offenses in CR20251060 after the Defendant started a YouTube campaign against the victim due to her spouse's employment as a Tucson City Prosecutor. The victim obtained an injunction against harassment against the Defendant, but he continued with his efforts at contact and with posting videos causing others to contact the victim. The Defendant was charged in CR20251454 with additional offenses committed while on release for CR20251060 by continually putting up videos causing further communication with the victim.

The Defendant entered a plea agreement on June 9, 2025, in both cases. On July 1, 2025, the Defendant was placed on probation for two different offenses. In CR20251060, pursuant to a plea agreement, the Defendant was found guilty of Stalking Distress/Fear, a Class Five Felony, committed September 12, 2024 through February 22, 2025. In CR20251454, pursuant to a plea agreement, the Defendant was found guilty of Aggravated Harassment-Court Order in Place, a Class Six Felony, committed on March 16, 2025. He was placed on probation as to both matters for three years with conditions of probation he was required to follow.

The Defendant was required to abide by the following terms while on probation that were ordered by the Court and encompassed under Condition 15 in his Conditions of Probation Document:

1. Do not contact the victim or her family.
2. Do not go to the victim's home.
3. Do not go to the victim's place of employment, meaning the building where she works or where she parks her car.

4. Do not encourage others to contact the victim, go to her home, or place of employment.
5. Do not engage in activities that would be reasonably expected to cause others to harass or contact the victim or her family.
6. Remove all videos that mention the victim or her family or include identifying information about them.
7. Allow probation full access to your YouTube Channel and any other social media to determine whether you are abiding by the conditions.
8. Do not associate or communicate, directly or indirectly with:
 - a. Joshua Gray, New Smyrna Beach, FL. (YouTube Handle :This is a Public Service.”)
 - b. Mark Kelly, Tucson, AZ. (YouTube Handle “Reluctant Profit.”)
9. Do not post information about the victim, her husband or her minor children on YouTube or other social media.

Furthermore, the victim was granted a Lifetime No-Contact Injunction against the Defendant.

The Adult Probation Department filed a Petition to Revoke the Defendant’s Probation on July 9, 2026, with the allegation that “On or about June 14, 2026, through July 3, 2026, the defendant posted information about the victim and her husband on YouTube. (Condition 15).” The State filed a Petition to Revoke dated

II. ALLEGED VIOLATIONS OF PROBATION

Rule 27.6 of the Arizona Rules of Criminal Procedure provides that “the probation officer or the State may petition the court to revoke probation if there is reasonable cause to believe that a probationer has violated a written condition or regulation of probation.” The probation department has filed a Petition for alleged violation of one condition of probation contained within Condition 15. The State hereby alleges there is reasonable cause to believe the probationer has violated the following conditions as ordered by the Court and encompassed in Condition 15:

5. Do not engage in activities that would be reasonably expected to cause others to harass or contact the victim or her family.

The State alleges the Defendant has violated his probation condition by conducting YouTube videos discussing the cases and the victim and distributing materials from his case to other YouTubers in June 2026 and July 2026. In support of this allegation, the State alleges the Defendant:

- On July 25, 2026, the Defendant conducted a jail interview streamed on YouTube channel “Liberty Troll,” in a video titled “Free Political Prisoner!! Corrupt Government Overreach has this Man Locked up with no Bond” during which the Defendant discusses the cases, the victim, and the victim’s spouse. This includes discussing the victim’s workplace and where to locate it, naming the victim and the victim’s spouse. He also called the victim a “professional victim,” said she was a liar, conniving, and alleged she conspired with her spouse against him. During the interview, Liberty Troll had an image of the victim and her spouse displayed.
- On July 27, 2026, the Defendant conducted a jail interview streamed on YouTube channel “Illuminate the Dark” titled “Let Lane Speak” where he discusses the victim, calls her a “professional victim,” refers to her as “a person who decided to make themselves a victim of harassment as a government employee,” and makes repeated derogatory comments about the victim and the victim’s spouse.
- Distributed the Rule 15 interview of Matthew Walker and Detective Brown to other YouTubers that was downloaded by the Defendant on May 26, 2026, and those YouTubers posted to other YouTube channels including “This is a Public Service” and “Illuminate the Dark.”

Defendant admitted in a jail call in speaking with Andrea Dotson “aka Illuminate the Dark” to having sent her the videos.¹

- June 20, 2026, Illuminate the Dark puts the Rule 15 interview of Matthew Walker on YouTube.
- June 21, 2026, Illuminate the Dark puts Rule 15 interview of Detective Brown on YouTube.
- June 21, 2026, This is a Public Service puts Rule 15 interview of Detective Brown on YouTube.
- June 25, 2026, This is a Public Service puts Rule 15 interview of Detective Brown on YouTube
- July 13, 2026, Jail Call with Andrea Dotson
- Discussed his case and the victim, puts up a document showing the case numbers, posted the victim’s name, and discussing the victim and saying the victim had him in “shackles and handcuffs for her lies” in the Defendant’s video “Better Not Miss It” video posted on June 30, 2026.
 - Timestamps include 6:41:05-6:45:37; 7:15:50-7:39:20; 8:56:33-9:01:30; 9:42:32-10:09:05

6. Remove all videos that mention the victim or her family or include identifying information about them.

The State alleges the Defendant has violated this condition of probation by posting content on his YouTube channel discussing the victim, her spouse, and her workplace in June 2026 and July 2026.

- On June 30, 2026, the Defendant on his YouTube channel, in video “Better Not Miss It”, displayed the victim’s name, discussed the case, and showed the case numbers demonstrating he was talking about the victim in these

9. Do not post information about the victim, her husband or her minor children on YouTube or other social media.

- On June 23, 2026, the Defendant while live streaming, in his video “A Little John Rietveld, A Little Jim Finch, Alot of Facts” goes to This is a Public Service YouTube page which displays multiple videos showing the victim and her spouse with names and images, as well as showing where people can watch the videos. 1:04:54-1:06:20.
- On July 25, 2026, conducted a jail interview streamed on YouTube channel Liberty Troll, during which the Defendant discusses the cases, the victim, and the victim’s spouse. This includes discussing the victim’s workplace and where to locate it, naming the victim and the victim’s spouse. He also called the victim a “professional victim,” said she was a liar, conniving, and alleged she conspired with her spouse against him. During the interview, Liberty Troll had an image of the victim and her spouse displayed.
- On June 30, 2026, the Defendant on his YouTube channel, in video “Better Not Miss It”, displayed the victim’s name, discussed the case, and showed the case numbers demonstrating he was talking about the victim in this case. Time stamps: 6:41:05-6:45:37, 7:15:50-7:39:20, 8:56:33-9:01:30, 9:42:32-10:09:05
- On June 28, 2026, posted video titled “Send This One” showing name of victim. The screen image showing the name of victim displayed was preserved.

III. CONCLUSION

The State requests, pursuant to A.R.S. § 13-901(C) and Arizona Rule of Criminal Procedure 27.6, that the Court revoke the Defendant’s probation because there is reasonable cause to believe he has violated the conditions of his probation.

Respectfully submitted this 28th day of July, 2026.
