SECOND AMENDED STATE'S PETITION TO REVOKE
DEFENDANT'S PROBATION

Hon. D. Douglas Metcalf
DIVISION 16

Comes now the State of Arizona, by and through the Pima County Attorney, LAURA CONOVER, and her Deputy, RACHEL STILES, pursuant to Rule 27.6 of the Arizona Rules of Criminal Procedure, hereby Petitions this Court to Revoke the Defendant's Probation. The State amends the Petition originally filed on July 10, 2026, and the Amended Petition to Revoke, that alleged the conduct supporting the allegations of the violations of probation, to include additional facts and conduct to support the Defendant is in violation of his conditions of probation.

I. FACTS:

The State incorporates the facts as alleged in the State’s Petition to Revoke filed on July 10, 2026, and the State’s Amended Petition to Revoke Defendant’s Probation filed on July 28, 2026.

II. ALLEGED VIOLATIONS OF PROBATION

Rule 27.6 of the Arizona Rules of Criminal Procedure provides that “the probation officer or the State may petition the court to revoke probation if there is reasonable cause to believe that a probationer has violated a written condition or regulation of probation.” The probation department has filed a Petition for alleged violation of one condition of probation contained within Condition 15. The State hereby alleges there is reasonable cause to believe the probationer has violated the following conditions as ordered by the Court and encompassed in Condition 15:

5. Do not engage in activities that would be reasonably expected to cause others to harass or contact the victim or her family.

The State alleges the Defendant has violated his probation condition by conducting YouTube videos discussing the cases and the victim and distributing materials from his case to other YouTubers in June 2026 and July 2026. In support of this allegation, the State alleges the Defendant:

- On July 25, 2026, the Defendant conducted a jail interview streamed on YouTube channel “Liberty Troll,” in a video titled “Free Political Prisoner!! Corrupt Government Overreach has this Man Locked up with no Bond” during which the Defendant discusses the cases, the victim, and the victim’s spouse. This includes discussing the victim’s workplace and where to locate it, naming the victim and the victim's spouse. He also called the victim a "professional victim," said she was a liar, conniving, and alleged she conspired with her spouse against him. During the interview, Liberty Troll had an image of the victim and her spouse displayed.

- On July 27, 2026, the Defendant conducted a jail interview streamed on YouTube channel "Illuminate the Dark" titled "Let Lane Speak" where he discusses the victim, calls her a "professional victim," refers to her as "a person who decided to make themselves a victim of harassment as a government employee," and makes repeated derogatory comments about the victim and the victim's spouse.
- Distributed the Rule 15 interview of Matthew Walker and Detective Brown to other YouTubers that was downloaded by the Defendant on May 26, 2026, and those YouTubers posted to other YouTube channels including "This is a Public Service" and "Illuminate the Dark." Defendant admitted in a jail call in speaking with Andrea Dotson "aka Illuminate the Dark" to having sent her the videos.¹
 - June 20, 2026, Illuminate the Dark puts the Rule 15 interview of Matthew Walker on YouTube.
 - June 21, 2026, Illuminate the Dark puts Rule 15 interview of Detective Brown on YouTube.
 - June 21, 2026, This is a Public Service puts Rule 15 interview of Detective Brown on YouTube.
