I, Michael Mee, declare as follows:

1. That I am counsel of record for Plaintiff Jose DeCastro and am admitted to practice before this Court;

2. That the service deadline was extended to July 31, 2026, and then to October 15, 2026, after LVMPD's Office of General Counsel declined the single summons but stated that it would accept service for all five Defendants upon receipt of individualized summonses;

3. That from June through September 2026, the HVAC system at my office failed, leaving the office unusable and me without staff until I relocated my practice in mid-September 2026;

4. That I was informed by the process server that on October 15, 2026, at approximately 3:00 p.m., service for each Defendant were attempted to be delivered to LVMPD headquarters, and that LVMPD refused service, stating that no one was present to accept it because staff had left for the day at 3:00 p.m.;

5. That thirty (30) days is sufficient to complete service, and that this extension is not sought for delay.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America that the foregoing is true and correct.
